In the Xhosa language, Masizakhe means ‘let’s rise up’ and that is exactly what Aunty Busiswa and Bongeka are helping girls to do in the poverty stricken township of Gugulethu.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Procedure, a GSGC girls’ club alumna, now leads two dynamic clubs of her own, supporting girls to believe in themselves and stay in school.

2 Clubs: 60 Girls

Auntie Masizakhe is giving her girls a chance for a brighter future by improving English language skills and school attendance, and increasing opportunities for secondary education.

2 Clubs: 40 Girls

With a strong focus on gender equality, veteran Auntie Fwilane, runs two girls’ clubs and a boys’ club, and mentors alumnae girls who have started two primary school clubs.

5 Clubs: 80+ Girls; 24 Boys

Auntie Kalinda is giving her girls a chance for a brighter future by improving English language skills and school attendance, and increasing opportunities for secondary education.

2 Clubs: 40 Girls

Auntie Agness and her daughter Yande, are helping YY girls gain confidence, self-expression, and life skills through a focus on art and craft techniques.

1 Club: 16 Girls

Aunties Gloria and Racheal are empowering girls by providing a support network, exposure to opportunities, and life skills to make positive choices.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Pestridda, a former teacher at the GSGC-supported Tusa Munyandi pre-school, is reducing poverty in her village by helping girls stay in school and avoid early pregnancies and early marriages.

1 Club: 15 Girls

Boys’ club mentor, Nyika, is helping boys – and village elders – understand the societal benefits of seeing and educating girls and women as equals.

2 Clubs: 30 Boys

In the Xhosa language, Masizakhe means ‘let’s rise up’ and that is exactly what Aunty Busiswa and Bongeka are helping girls to do in the poverty stricken township of Gugulethu.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Procedure, a GSGC girls’ club alumna, now leads two dynamic clubs of her own, supporting girls to believe in themselves and stay in school.

2 Clubs: 60 Girls

Auntie Kalinda is giving her girls a chance for a brighter future by improving English language skills and school attendance, and increasing opportunities for secondary education.

2 Clubs: 40 Girls

With a strong focus on gender equality, veteran Auntie Fwilane, runs two girls’ clubs and a boys’ club, and mentors alumnae girls who have started two primary school clubs.

5 Clubs: 80+ Girls; 24 Boys

Auntie Agness and her daughter Yande, are helping YY girls gain confidence, self-expression, and life skills through a focus on art and craft techniques.

1 Club: 16 Girls

Aunties Gloria and Racheal are empowering girls by providing a support network, exposure to opportunities, and life skills to make positive choices.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Pestridda, a former teacher at the GSGC-supported Tusa Munyandi pre-school, is reducing poverty in her village by helping girls stay in school and avoid early pregnancies and early marriages.

1 Club: 15 Girls

Boys’ club mentor, Nyika, is helping boys – and village elders – understand the societal benefits of seeing and educating girls and women as equals.

2 Clubs: 30 Boys

In the Xhosa language, Masizakhe means ‘let’s rise up’ and that is exactly what Aunty Busiswa and Bongeka are helping girls to do in the poverty stricken township of Gugulethu.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Procedure, a GSGC girls’ club alumna, now leads two dynamic clubs of her own, supporting girls to believe in themselves and stay in school.

2 Clubs: 60 Girls

Auntie Kalinda is giving her girls a chance for a brighter future by improving English language skills and school attendance, and increasing opportunities for secondary education.

2 Clubs: 40 Girls

With a strong focus on gender equality, veteran Auntie Fwilane, runs two girls’ clubs and a boys’ club, and mentors alumnae girls who have started two primary school clubs.

5 Clubs: 80+ Girls; 24 Boys

Auntie Agness and her daughter Yande, are helping YY girls gain confidence, self-expression, and life skills through a focus on art and craft techniques.

1 Club: 16 Girls

Aunties Gloria and Racheal are empowering girls by providing a support network, exposure to opportunities, and life skills to make positive choices.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Pestridda, a former teacher at the GSGC-supported Tusa Munyandi pre-school, is reducing poverty in her village by helping girls stay in school and avoid early pregnancies and early marriages.

1 Club: 15 Girls

Boys’ club mentor, Nyika, is helping boys – and village elders – understand the societal benefits of seeing and educating girls and women as equals.

2 Clubs: 30 Boys

In the Xhosa language, Masizakhe means ‘let’s rise up’ and that is exactly what Aunty Busiswa and Bongeka are helping girls to do in the poverty stricken township of Gugulethu.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Procedure, a GSGC girls’ club alumna, now leads two dynamic clubs of her own, supporting girls to believe in themselves and stay in school.

2 Clubs: 60 Girls

Auntie Kalinda is giving her girls a chance for a brighter future by improving English language skills and school attendance, and increasing opportunities for secondary education.

2 Clubs: 40 Girls

With a strong focus on gender equality, veteran Auntie Fwilane, runs two girls’ clubs and a boys’ club, and mentors alumnae girls who have started two primary school clubs.

5 Clubs: 80+ Girls; 24 Boys

Auntie Agness and her daughter Yande, are helping YY girls gain confidence, self-expression, and life skills through a focus on art and craft techniques.

1 Club: 16 Girls

Aunties Gloria and Racheal are empowering girls by providing a support network, exposure to opportunities, and life skills to make positive choices.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Pestridda, a former teacher at the GSGC-supported Tusa Munyandi pre-school, is reducing poverty in her village by helping girls stay in school and avoid early pregnancies and early marriages.

1 Club: 15 Girls

Boys’ club mentor, Nyika, is helping boys – and village elders – understand the societal benefits of seeing and educating girls and women as equals.

2 Clubs: 30 Boys

In the Xhosa language, Masizakhe means ‘let’s rise up’ and that is exactly what Aunty Busiswa and Bongeka are helping girls to do in the poverty stricken township of Gugulethu.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Procedure, a GSGC girls’ club alumna, now leads two dynamic clubs of her own, supporting girls to believe in themselves and stay in school.

2 Clubs: 60 Girls

Auntie Kalinda is giving her girls a chance for a brighter future by improving English language skills and school attendance, and increasing opportunities for secondary education.

2 Clubs: 40 Girls

With a strong focus on gender equality, veteran Auntie Fwilane, runs two girls’ clubs and a boys’ club, and mentors alumnae girls who have started two primary school clubs.

5 Clubs: 80+ Girls; 24 Boys

Auntie Agness and her daughter Yande, are helping YY girls gain confidence, self-expression, and life skills through a focus on art and craft techniques.

1 Club: 16 Girls

Aunties Gloria and Racheal are empowering girls by providing a support network, exposure to opportunities, and life skills to make positive choices.

2 Clubs: 30 Girls

Auntie Pestridda, a former teacher at the GSGC-supported Tusa Munyandi pre-school, is reducing poverty in her village by helping girls stay in school and avoid early pregnancies and early marriages.

1 Club: 15 Girls

Boys’ club mentor, Nyika, is helping boys – and village elders – understand the societal benefits of seeing and educating girls and women as equals.

2 Clubs: 30 Boys

In the Xhosa language, Masizakhe means ‘let’s rise up’ and that is exactly what Aunty Busiswa and Bongeka are helping girls to do in the poverty stricken township of Gugulethu.